RAIL MANAGERS' NEW PLANS GIVEN TRAINMEN

SLAVS 45 MILES FROM LEMBERG AS IRON RING CLOSES IN

New Line Pierced By Czar In 12-Mile Advance On Stripa River

ITALIANS TAKE 1620 TEUTON PRISONERS

French Seize Verdun Lines; Berlin Admits British Pozieres Victory

PETROGRAD, Aug. 15.—The Russians have pierced a new Austrian and German line on the Zlota Lipa river at a new point, having crossed the west bank of the river in a twelve-mile advance from the upper Stripa, it was today announced.

The Austrians have almost entirely ceased their attacks to the southeast, near the Carpathians.

The Russians are now drawing in on Lemberg on a curving 150-mile front. At the nearest point, southwest of Brody, the Russians are forty-five miles from the Galician capital.

ITALIANS SEIZE 1620 FOES IN DRIVE

ROME, Aug. 15.—Several sections of Austrian trenches have been captured by the Italians west of San Grado, 1400 prisoners being taken, it was announced today.

East of Goritz, in heavy fighting progressing there, 220 prisoners were taken.

300 YARDS VERDUN LINES FALL TO FRENCH

PARIS, Aug. 15.—A French grenade attack on the northeastern Verdun front during last night resulted in the capture of 300 yards of German trenches to a depth of a hundred yards, it was today officially announced.

French artillery was active on the Somme last night but there were no active infantry engagements.

BERLIN ADMITS BRITISH POZIERES VICTORY

BERLIN, Aug. 15.—The British again obtained a foothold in German first-line trenches between Thiepval and Pozieres, it was today officially announced.

General Von Bothmer's forces have completely checked the Russian attacks between Zborow and Konischy east of Lemberg, the official statement said.

BRITISH TAKE 700 YARDS TRENCHES

LONDON, Aug. 15.—The British have recaptured 700 yards of front in the Somme region, it was today officially announced.

WAR BLAME IS DENIED BY GERMAN EMPEROR

LONDON, Aug. 15.—A statement by the German Emperor on the responsibility for the European war is published today in the Daily News. It is contained in a dispatch from Bern, Switzerland, which gives an "eminent neutral's" account of an audience with the Kaiser at Berlin. The Kaiser is quoted as saying:

"I suppose the British theory that I am responsible for the war has got a hold on your own people.

"It is curious how this theory seems to fascinate my enemies, yet the people who accuse me of having caused the war are the very people who previously testified to the earnestness of my desire for peace.

"I do not envy the man who has the responsibility for this war upon his conscience. I, at least, am not that man. I think history will clear me of that charge, although I do not suppose history will hold me faultless.

"In a sense every civilized man in Europe must have a share in the responsibility for this war, and the higher his position the larger his responsibility. I admit that and yet I claim that I acted throughout in good faith and strove hard for peace, even though war was inevitable.

"Why do you neutrals always talk about German militarism and never about Russian despotism, or the French craving for revenge, or English treachery? I think the next generation will strike a more just balance in apportioning the blame."

READY TO LAY KEEL OF BIG SHIP SEPT. 30

VALLEJO, Aug. 15.—A request has been wired to the New York Navy Yard, asking that the detailed plans of the new battleship California be rushed west, as the local yard, which is building the vessel, has the ship work sufficiently advanced to lay the keel September 30.

Steady British Gunfire in France Like Roaring of Many Thunderstorms

BY WILBUR S. FORREST
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

WITH THE BRITISH ARMY IN THE FIELD, July 20.—(By Mail)—If it's possible to imagine dozens of heavy thunderstorms blended into one continuous roar, the shrieking and whining of unseen tons of steel and high explosives racing through the sky, lightning flashes of bursting shells continually specking the horizon like a giant Fourth of July display, then it's partly possible to visualize the newest phase of war on the western front.

The United Press correspondent saw and heard all this today from a high stretch of ground commanding the scene of a dozen of the bloodiest and most terrible conflicts of the British drive. Dotting the green hills and valleys here and there were distinct blotches of brown visible among naked skeletons of trees. These ugly blots on the landscape a short time ago were pretty villages, each with a church spire and red topped houses snuggled down between the rolling hills. Today they were merely ugly blots. Each is typical of the other—mostly a pile of bricks that resembles nothing.

SEES WAR-TORN VILLAGES

From the vantage point were observed Contalmaison, Basentin le Grande, Montban, La Boisselle, Metz and several small woods which have figured prominently in the communiqués. Just beyond the range of vision lay Longueval and Delville Wood where at the moment the Germans were engaged in a heavy counter-attack which gave them back a part of the wood and a few houses of the village. A British counter-attack soon reversed the situation. Fighting of this character has been a peculiar feature of the British offensive. All captured points have been strongly held. Wherever the Germans concentrate their reserves and organize a counter-drive any advantage they gain is of short duration. The systematic British advance makes it possible to retaliate quickly, usually in force.

Precaution prevents publication of news relative to troops and movements of troops, but it can be said with safety that there is no shortage of shells, of men or guns behind the British line.

NO SHORTAGE OF MATERIALS

From the viewpoint of the non-military observer, there is no shortage of anything.

For miles along the network of country roads, well behind the fighting lines, great masses of men in khaki, most of them wearing the picturesque steel helmet, are waiting for their turn. Motor lorries in great droves are also performing their functions. Passing along the roads miles and miles to the rear, khaki is everywhere.

Peaceful little villages which fate has left so near the ravages of the conflict yet still untouched are filled with it. Every doorway shows a "tommy." Every corner shows a group of "tommies." These men are in billets, many of them having had their turn at the fighting and are taking a well-earned rest. Others have freshly arrived from England as can be seen by the newness of their uniforms.

GREAT PANORAMA OF WAR

The veteran "tommy" is a trifle more staid. Roads, training fields with detachments of newer recruits still in training are frequently seen. Schools of bombing and musketry are scattered here and there. Northern France is one great panorama of war.

BRITISH CIVILIANS THREATENED WITH BOMB DEATHS AS GERMANY ANNOUNCES POLICY OF REPRISAL

BERLIN, Aug. 15.—Zeppelins will be used by Germany to punish England for the steamer Baralong case, decided that the killing of German submarine prisoners, it was today officially announced.

In the future Zeppelin crews raiding English towns will have no consideration for the lives of civilians.

An official stated that Zeppelins raiding English towns will have no consideration for the lives of civilians other than demanded by international law.

The government made known its position by transmitting to the Reichstag the White Book on the Baralong case, containing official British and German statements. The final reports say:

"The German government, replying to declarations of the British government on the Baralong case, decided that on account of the British government's revolting attitude, it is impossible to continue negotiations."

At the same time it was announced that it would itself take up reprisals corresponding to the provocation.

3 DIE, SEVERAL HURT AS DOUBLE-HEADER FREIGHT TRAINS HIT

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—Three men were today killed and several injured in a double-header freight train crash.

CREW OF BARK, STILL MUTINOUS, IN PORT

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 15.—With the members of her crew defiant and charging misrepresentation, the three-masted bark Callao was towed back into this port after almost 48 hours of drifting about in a dense fog off the Golden Gate with deep sea tugs searching for her in response to wireless appeals dispatched by Captain William Tobin. Trouble started Saturday evening, shortly after the vessel had cleared for New York.

The men claimed that the vessel was unseaworthy. Captain Tobin denied last night that the voyage had been misrepresented to the men. Federal officials will investigate.

NEW PYTHIAN HOME AT POMONA IS DEDICATED

POMONA, Aug. 15.—The beautiful new Pythian home, recently erected in this city, has been formally dedicated. All of the lodges of this section of Southern California were represented. The ceremony brought together a notable gathering of the lodge officials of the state.

GIRLS BOUGHT FOR $1 POUND, SAYS OFFICIAL

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—One dollar a pound is the price actually paid for immature school girls auctioned off by the alleged white slavers' vice trust, Assistant District Attorney Smith today stated.

FIRE GERMANY'S GRAIN FIELDS, PLAN OF ALLY AIR RAIDERS

Trial Forays In Attempt to Aid Starvation Campaign Already Carried Out

BERLIN, Aug. 15.—Allied military chiefs are attempting to aid in starving Germany out through a campaign of setting afire Germany's harvest fields. Aviators are attempting to drop incendiary bombs in the fields in order to start fires.

Recent raids by Anglo-French aviators over the Black Forest and farm lands near Karlsruhe are said to have been experimental trips.

Incendiary bombs were dropped on several fields with evidence of the intention of starting fires but these only did slight damage.

Adolphe von Batocki, German food dictator, today said that there is little chance of the plans succeeding. In the first place, he said, the fields have not been dry enough to enable the fires to start a great fire; second, many crops are already in, and, third, there are no large farms like in America.

"Small farms that lose their crops in this manner will not affect the total," said von Batocki. "Don't forget, too, that our aeroplanes are guarding our farms as well as our troops in our trenches. Furthermore, our biggest harvest, potatoes, cannot be burned."

RY. TITLE TO LANDS AT SACRAMENTO IS CONFIRMED BY COURT

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 15.—Title of the Central Pacific and Southern Pacific railroads to Sacramento waterfront lands valued at millions of dollars has been affirmed by the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, as against the claims of the Ennis-Brown Company of Sacramento and fifteen others, that the railroads held the lands illegally. Judge William B. Gilbert dissented.

The court decided that, as the railroads had held the lands since 1868 and had improved them for terminal purposes and no effort had been made to cloud the title over such a stretch of time, there was no equity in the plaintiff's contentions. The court declared that the suit should have been for damages at law, that it was not an action in equity under the circumstances.

Ennis-Brown Company and associated plaintiffs claimed the railroads' title was invalid to a portion of their holdings riparian to the Sacramento river on the ground that they had never been used as terminal facilities.

Judge Gilbert dissented from his colleagues only in their decision that the action was one for damages.

IMPRESSIVE TRIBUTE PAID DEAD SURGEON

CHICAGO, Aug. 15.—Rich and poor alike paid an impressive tribute to the memory of Dr. John B. Murphy, the noted surgeon, who was buried from St. James' Catholic church.

Thousands of persons viewed the body at the Murphy home in South Michigan avenue and a larger outpour of people attempted to gain entrance to the church. Streets were lined with people as the funeral procession moved toward Calvary cemetery.

Bishop Peter J. Muldoon of Rockford, Ill., preached the funeral sermon.

MILLS, SHUT DOWN 17 YEARS, WILL REOPEN

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 15.—After seventeen years of silence, looms in mill at Marysville are to hum to the manufacture of blankets. It has been announced here by the Home Industry League of California.

Oregon capitalists will have operatives brought from that state at work within four weeks, it is said.

WHEAT PROBE RUMORS BRING PRICE SLUMP

CHICAGO, Aug. 15.—Wheat today fell two cents at the opening of the grain market.

Continued rumors of a federal investigation of the price and manipulation of prices caused the drop.

BRITISH DESTROYER IS SUNK BY TEUTONS

Hughes Will Speak Here To Give 15-Min. Address Hour Still to Be Arranged

M. R. AND MRS. CHARLES E. HUGHES were surrounded with children when they went to view Niagara Falls on their western tour. They remained there a day and when they went to the falls half of the children of the city followed them.

Final Arrangements For Republican Standard Bearer's Stop In Santa Ana Completed; Nominee to Make No Other Speeches In Orange County

Charles E. Hughes, Republican nominee for President of the United States, is to speak for fifteen minutes at the Santa Fe depot at 10:30 o'clock next Monday morning, or at 5:30 o'clock next Monday afternoon, Aug. 21.

Definite schedule for the stop here will be made by those who are arranging the details for the Hughes tour through California. County Clerk W. B. Williams, member of the Republican state central committee, has received word to that effect from W. W. Mines of Los Angeles, vice-chairman of the state central committee. Mines stated to Williams over the telephone that he had taken it up with the San Francisco managers of the tour, and had been successful in making the date for Santa Ana.

Mines said that he was unsuccessful in his effort to get other stops for speeches in Orange County. The only address that Judge Hughes will make in the county will be that at Santa Ana from the platform of the observation car of the train that reaches here going to or coming from San Diego next Monday.

Williams was informed by Mines that there would be no reserved seats at Shrine Auditorium, Los Angeles, Monday night for the address to be given at that place by Judge Hughes.

Hughes Warming Up, Puts Personal Punch in Talks

TACOMA, Aug. 15.—It was predicted that 40,000 persons would hear Charles E. Hughes at the Stadium at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Hughes today lauded the work of the Red Cross when he met the ladies of the Tacoma chapter, thus: "Of all beneficial organizations I know of none more worthy to be recognized than yours."

In his speeches across the continent so far the G. O. P. aspirant for presidential honors has heretofore confined himself to speaking of the party only and personal references were veiled.

The Governor has really but one speech. He starts off with a plea for unity of Americanism. Then he touches upon preparedness and attacks the Democratic policies, in both matters hitting at the Mexico program.

Then he jumps back to the attack on the Democrats for "governmental inefficiency," "pork" methods, lack of co-ordination and ends with pledges for "better government" under Republican rule.

GOUGH'S TONSORIAL ARTISTS TO STRIKE

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—New Yorkers will have to shave themselves next week, for the barbers, not to be outdone by the street car men, the railroad men and the farmers, are going on strike. Rubin Guskin, business agent of the barbers' union, said that 20,000 of them, representing the employees of 10,000 shops in the city, will walk out at 10 o'clock next Tuesday morning.

The men demand that work shall stop at 8 p. m. during week days and at 1 p. m. on Sundays and holidays. They also demand an increase in pay of $1 to $2 a week.

CHILD IS DROWNED IN WATERING TROUGH

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 15.—The 14-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Frye of Lomita was drowned yesterday morning while playing around a watering trough. The baby had been permitted by its mother to play in the yard and when a few moments later the mother looked for the child she found her floating face down in the water. Physicians from San Pedro were summoned and worked for more than an hour attempting to revive the child, but failed. Coroner Hartwell ordered a verdict of accidental death to be returned. The parents live in Lomita.

WHITE HOUSE IS PARLEY SCENE AS PRESIDENT BATTLES TO HALT STRIKE

Employees Reach Capitol at 3 O'clock This Afternoon to Hear Proposals

JUDGE CHAMBERS IS SUMMONED BY WILSON

Call For Jurist Comes After This Afternoon's Conference

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—Judge Chambers of the Federal Board of Mediation and Conciliation was called to the White House this afternoon after the President and the executive board of the railway employees had been in conference at the White House.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—The executive board of the Big Four Brotherhoods went to the White House this afternoon to receive personally from President Wilson proposals made by the railroad managers to the President this morning in an effort to avert the threatened railway strike. The trainmen reached the White House shortly after 3 o'clock.

A conference between the President and the managers ended at 10:40 a. m. Three of the managers would make no comment on leaving.

It was announced that the President would see the representatives of the employees at 3 o'clock.

An investigation of the application for a shorter day principle for railroad operation as presented to the President by the managers would be made by the board appointed by the President, it was understood.

Order Sending More Men To Line Suspended

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—Because of the threatened strike on the railroads the War Department today suspended indefinitely the proposed movement to the border of between 25,000 to 35,000 militia in state camps that were last week ordered to the Mexican line.

The reason for suspending the order is a possible shortage of supplies and difficulty of obtaining transportation for the men. This has no connection, it is said, with the possible use of troops during the threatened strike.

Until further orders are issued, none of the organizations that were preparing to leave the state camps will be sent to the border.

Says Instant Halt Would Follow Strike Order

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—"If a strike of the 400,000 railroad operatives should be called, transportation in the United States would be paralyzed one minute after the order is issued," A. B. Garretson, president of the Order of Railroad Conductors, today said.

Garretson said that the carrying of the mails is up to the railroads and not the men.

L. A. OFFICIAL HELP FOR AUTO RACE ASKED

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 15.—To eliminate legal obstacles to the Santa Monica race classic this fall, the Santa Monica Chamber of Commerce sent a communication yesterday requesting the Los Angeles City Council to pass a resolution authorizing the closing of thoroughfares within the race course traversing city property.

The Santa Monica body explains that it desires to send a copy of such a resolution to the National Contest Board together with a request for permission to conduct the cup races. It seeks authority to close the thoroughfares during certain hours from November 9 to 18, inclusive.

L. A. CRAFT TO ENGAGE IN MEX. COAST TRADE

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 15.—The Los Angeles schooner Ida A., said to be the only vessel now afloat that navigates the Colorado river as far as the Black Buttes, has been placed under the Honduras flag and renamed the Estrella. The vessel's home port has been changed from Los Angeles to Anapala. She will engage in the Mexican coastwise trade.

WOMEN'S RIGHT TO FRANCHISE FUNDAMENTAL SAYS HUGHES

Hopes For Early Settlement Of Question; Tacoma Welcomes G. O. P. Nominee

SPOKANE, Wash., Aug. 15.—Extension of the franchise to women as a fundamental right, not merely an expedient, was the message Charles E. Hughes delivered to the Progressive women of the inland empire yesterday.

The Republican presidential candidate not only declared that he wanted the question settled with uniform laws throughout the United States, but that he hoped earnestly the time was not far distant when the women of the entire country would have equal advantages with the men on all election days.

He declared that the painstaking investigator of public affairs could not fail to note the increasing number of women engaged in gainful occupations, and the constantly widening opportunities for womanhood. These things, he said, had been borne in upon him in the quiet of his study and not in the heat of political discussion. His conclusion had come as a result of careful thought, and once having reached it, he could not keep silent on it now, since he had been forced into the open arena of political discussion.

Hard Day's Climax
The suffrage address came as the climax of one of the hardest days the candidate has had on the tour. Receptions, handshaking, two addresses in Spokane and a motor trip to Coeur d'Alene, Ida., where he sailed into the Wilson administration with great vigor, kept him on the jump from early morning until 8 o'clock last night.

Before a crowd in the Idaho city, gathered from all over the northern section of the state, Hughes tore into the Democratic administration for hiding behind the war-made prosperity of the present time. He laid heavy blows on the Wilson forces and finally declared that the European war is the only thing that has saved Wilson and his administration from the universal condemnation of all the people, for without it, he said, business distress and panic would be a strong probability at this hour.

Refers to War's End
He told the great audience assembled under the yellow pines on the shore of the beautiful lake that they should not be deceived by the present artificial business situation, but to anticipate with deep concern the end of the war in Europe if by any chance the Wilson administration should be retained in power.

Not Afraid to Fight
He was repeatedly applauded, particularly when he said that he was not afraid to fight, and added: "I believe the test of America in the near future is going to be not in her capacity for oratory, but in her capacity for organization."

Tearing down the Spokane river valley forty miles an hour in an automobile, Hughes returned here in time to address the big audience of women in the auditorium. It was jammed long before the hour of the meeting. An overflow meeting was held in the American theater.

Mrs. Belle Schussler, president of the Hughes Women's Club of Spokane; Mrs. F. A. Notewar, Mrs. Sarah H. Flannigan, Mrs. Fred Witt and Mrs. Grimes from the New York office of the Hughes Women's alliance escorted the candidate and Mrs. Hughes to the hall.

The orchestra played "The Star Spangled Banner" as they entered the stage and Mrs. Harry Rosenhaupt presented Mrs. Hughes with a mammoth bouquet.

All Applaud Him
The entire audience rose, waved handkerchiefs and applauded as Mr. Hughes stepped out to the front of the stage, bowing and smiling and waving his hand.

Miss Jeanette Donaldson, county superintendent of schools, and the only woman Republican county office holder in the state, introduced Mr. Hughes. She made a big hit with her tribute to the "former governor of New York" when she said, "America has produced a man among men." The great audience applauded for a full minute.

"We, today," she added, "commend the frank and manly way in which he has expressed the political womanhood of America. In his whole career he has been always a man—a man always thinking for the good of all."

Hughes Affected
Hughes was visibly affected by this greeting as he stepped forward to begin speaking. He glanced up into the box and smiled at the woman holding the big bouquet—Mrs. Hughes. She smiled back and then his first sentence was:

"Fellow citizens: This is the most interesting political meeting I ever addressed."

When the applause subsided he continued: "I am accustomed to surprises, but this meeting is a very grateful surprise. It impresses me profoundly with the truth of that which I said in New York a few days ago, that it is perfectly idle to suppose that the women of this country will be denied the right to vote."

Suffrage Inevitable
"As I have contemplated American affairs, sitting aloof from actual participation in them, I reached the conclusion that suffrage for women was inevitable in this growing and developing country of the twentieth century."

I was deeply gratified to find that the right of women to vote was recognized by the Republican party platform. That platform did not say anything in respect to the proposed federal amendment. In my address in answer to the notification of my nomination I confined myself to a statement with respect to the right, apart from the particular method of obtaining it."

The candidate said then that in view of the ever-widening scope of the activities of women it seemed to him "that no one could suppose that movement which had obtained such headway could be resisted permanently."

Hughes said he considered it wise "not to make necessary a continuous agitation by fruitless opposition." He reiterated his stand for an early settlement of the question.

"Women as citizens should go into

THE NATION IS SHOCKINGLY UNPREPARED.

It is apparent that we are shockingly unprepared. There is no room for controversy on this point since the object lesson on the Mexican border. All our available regular troops (less, I believe, than 40,000) are there or in Mexico, and as these have been deemed insufficient the entire National Guard has been ordered out; that is, we are summoning practically all our movable military forces in order to prevent bandit incursions. In view of the warnings of the past three years, it is inexcusable that we should find ourselves in this plight. For our faithful guardsmen, who with a fine patriotism responded to this call and are bearing this burden, I have nothing but praise. But I think it little short of absurd that we should be compelled to call men from their shops, their factories, their offices and their professions for such a purpose. This, however, is not all. The units of the National Guard were at peace strength, which was only about one-half the required strength. It was necessary to bring in recruits, for the most part raw and untrained. Only a small percentage of the regiments recruited up to war strength will have had even a year's training in the National Guard, which at the maximum means one hundred hours of military drill, and, on the average, means much less. Men fresh from their peaceful employments and physically unprepared have been hurried to the border for actual service. They were without proper equipment; without necessary supplies; suitable conditions of transportation were not provided. Men with dependent families were sent; and conditions which should have been well known were discovered after the event. And the exigency, comparatively speaking, was not a very grave one. It involved nothing that could not readily have been foreseen during the past three years of disturbance, and required only a modest talent for organization. That this Administration while pursuing its course in Mexico should have permitted such conditions to exist is almost incredible.—From Mr. Hughes' speech of acceptance.

the discussion of political questions as citizens and not from a sex standpoint," said the Republican nominee.

He said that early in the campaign he did not see how it was possible to go through the campaign with his views of suffrage concealed. He said he "had no desire to conceal them; he had long entertained them."

"I think the question," he said, "is one which should be settled for the entire country, and settled as speedily as possible, and therefore, while I did not propose to attempt to add, and could not add, to the platform of my party, I stated my personal conviction that the amendment should be submitted and ratified."

This last expression was significant as during the day's speaking Hughes had said that if elected he would use all his executive influence to see that his pledges and the party platform were carried out.

He aroused the big audience at the close of his speech when he placed the women on the same plane of importance as the men in discussing political matters. He said that he was speaking to the women as he would speak to the men.

The candidate left here at 9:45 p. m., for Tacoma, where he was scheduled to speak early this afternoon.

GUARDSMEN SWAMPED WITH GOODIES SUPPLY

PASADENA, Aug. 15.—Capt. B. M. Muzzey has placed an embargo on the shipment of any more lemons, soda pop, sugar, candy, oranges and other good things to eat and drink to Company 1, now doing National Guard work along the Mexican border. He says the militiamen now have more dainties than they can take care of, and that anything additional would have to be left behind on a two-weeks' march, about to be undertaken.

KEEP UP PROGRESSIVE WORK IN LEGISLATURE IS PLEA OF JOHNSON

BERKELEY, Aug. 15.—So enthusiastically did the college town turn out last night to hear Governor Johnson speak at the high school auditorium that it was necessary to hold an impromptu overflow meeting of citizens in the Hotel Shattuck, half a block away, where Republican National Committee member Chester H. Rowell and others held the auditors until Johnson himself could make a belated appearance.

The governor, while recommending his candidacy for the United States senate on the promise that he would undertake to write into national legislation the legislative accomplishments under his administration in the state in the last six years, made a strong appeal for the election of state officers, and particularly members of the Legislature, who would not only carry on progressive work already done, but would keep close watch on what has been done to see that it was not torn down by the "ruthless hands of privilege."

"They are trying right now," said he, "to destroy the direct primary—the first bulwark of the political freedom of this land. That they may not do this, look to your Legislature. See that your lawmakers represent you and what you have done. See that they do not represent private interests and public service corporations. Don't let them pull down or taint this beautiful governmental structure, which we have lifted through our heart's blood."

BY CARL W. ACKERMAN (United Press Staff Correspondent)
BERLIN, July 2.—(By Mail.)—Today it is up to the soldier's wife to see that the available food is cooked so it can be eaten. Germany's land-storm women fight at home against the blockade while the land-storm man attacks the enemy at the front.

A German hausfrau can't go to shops or market now and get what she wants. She can't even get sufficient of some things she needs. She can buy only one-half a pound of meat a week for each person. If she gets pork she grinds it up fine and mixes it with bread crumbs. This loaf she roasts. One-third of this she serves for one meal. Next day she does without meat. The third day she serves another third. The fourth day she has fish and the fifth day she boils what is left of the meat with milk and has creamed meat on toast.

Potatoes are scarce, but with more bread and incoming spring vegetables the cook makes some kind of a new dish.

The world probably never has seen such resourcefulness displayed by organized society as is evidenced in Berlin today. Women who could no longer obtain enough flour for baking cakes discovered that a very good cake could be made by grating up carrots with the whites of two eggs and sugar. The government is now selling soup cubes made of wheat and fat for one cent each, which makes three cups of good soup. Asparagus has taken the place of potatoes at many meals.

Everyone in Berlin today eats by cards. Those who live in apartments receive at the beginning of each month their allotment of cards from the porter. These cards include bread, butter, meat, milk, rice and potato cards. Every time the hausfrau goes to market she must take her cards along. Meat and butter are now regulated so she can buy them without standing for several hours in line. One cake of soap per month per person is the regulated quantity.

Yet the land-storm man and her family make the best of it and keep not only alive but in good health.

MRS. W. K. VANDERBILT VISITS MOVIE PLANT

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 15.—A real thrill in comics, promised yesterday by the management of the Keystone Film Company inendale for the education of Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, Jr., and a party of friends, which included Mrs. T. W. Clarke, Mrs. Raoul Duval, Miss Ira Tree, J. W. Kayes, R. M. Tobin and W. G. Van Pelt of San Francisco, and J. N. Neville of Del Monte, was staged with so much realism that today, when the members of the party were scheduled to revisit the movie studio, they wore their less expensive clothing.

It happened this way: Mrs. Vanderbilt and her guests, all enthusiastic film fans, accepted an invitation to sit near the camera which was being operated to take a comic fire scene. The fire was started on schedule time and was progressing nicely, with the movie actors going through their various stunts, when suddenly there was an explosion of smoke powder which threatened the destruction of thirty or forty other "sets" in close proximity to the one intentionally fired. Realizing the danger, the fire brigade of the movie company rushed in front of where the guests were seated, overturned the camera, and began to direct streams of water at all angles. Before Mrs. Vanderbilt and her party were able to escape all were showered with water. It was not until after the damage had been done that the well-meaning employees of the film company learned whom they had deluged.

Mrs. Vanderbilt had another experience on her visit to the film studio of which she is not yet aware. While she and her companions were inspecting a luxurious drawing room "set," the camera-man suddenly got busy. So the members of the distinguished party probably will find themselves in the cast of a comic film production before many more weeks.

S. J. JACKMAN IS HOME; STUDIED TAX LEAGUES

Head of Local Organization Returns With Raft of New Ideas

S. J. Jackman, president of the Orange County Taxpayers' League and delegate to the National Progressive Convention at Chicago, returned home last night, after an absence of two and a half months.

Jackman is in the best of health, in good spirits and very much refreshed by his vacation.

Most of the time was passed with his aged mother at East Liverpool, Ohio.

Asked for comment on the political situation in the East, Jackman stated that it had been so warm in the sections where he visited that the people were too busy in their efforts to keep cool to give any consideration to the political situation—in fact he had hardly heard the subject discussed.

He embraced the opportunity to make a thorough investigation of the methods of operation and activities of taxpayers' leagues in Kansas and other states, and comes home with new ideas gained through his association with men who are prominent in the affairs of the leagues in the places where he visited. At a number of the places he had close personal friends at the head of the leagues, and was accorded every privilege of gaining the very best information possible on the methods in vogue. In the essential parts, he found no great difference between the methods in vogue in the East and those obtaining in the Orange county organization.

SAVE P. O. SERVICE JOBS FOR SOLDIERS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—Postmaster General Burleson has issued a statement pointing out that no postal employees would be deprived of their places on account of service with the National Guard.

This declaration was made following the receipt from Chicago of news that the postmaster there had dropped from the rolls, on orders from Washington, 130 employees now in the United States service at the border.

BANK RUN HALTS AS $500,000 IS SIGHTED

EAST ST. LOUIS, Aug. 15.—A pile of currency totaling $500,000 checked a small run of savings depositors of the Illinois State Bank here. Some depositors, after withdrawing their money went to the receiving teller's window and re-deposited it.

The run was due to reports spread by a man, who telephoned depositors "a tip" that the bank was not safe. Sight of the half million dollars greeted the nervous depositors.

Her father was not a wealthy man, not nearly so wealthy as her husband, the manufacturer of Birmingham.

SAYS OUTLOOK FOR DRY STATE GROWS BRIGHT

Rev. E. W. Pasko Urges That Personal Work Be Done to Help the Great Fight

"The further we go in this campaign," said Rev. E. W. Pasko of Riverside, district organizer for the California Dry Federation, "the more confident do the leaders feel that California is going dry this year. The outlook is bright, and grows brighter. Support for the movement has come from sources that we did not expect. The most recent encouraging feature is the fact that the labor unions over the state in many instances are coming out in favor of California dry. The Longshoremen's Union at San Francisco has endorsed it."

Rev. Pasko was here last night for a conference with local dry workers. A number of precinct captains and members of the executive committee of the local organization met at the city hall. The meeting was presided over by A. J. Padgham, elected president to succeed J. A. Cranston.

Rev. Pasko urged that personal work be done.

"It is not enough that you have religious devotion," said he. "This fight is not going to be won by meditation or devotion. It is a question of hard personal work, which constitutes practical politics. If you all do your share of personal work, the chances for success are splendid."

A dry campaign quartet is to be formed by Santa Ana men singers.

Squad work is being featured in the organization for the coming November election. Keith Davis is to organize a squad here for active, personal work. Squads have been organized at Orange and Anaheim.

Hait and Summers, the Dry Federation campaigners, are to speak at Orange tonight, and at Anaheim tomorrow night. They will appear in this county again later in the campaign.

MYSTERY THIEF PURLOINS $13 FROM WOMAN

Miss Gertrude Ellsworth, assistant in Dr. J. I. Clark's office, found herself $13 poorer at noon yesterday than she was when she took up her duties in the office yesterday morning, $10 of which amount she intended to put in the bank after dinner.

Someone else is having the pleasure of spending the money which the young lady had intended putting aside for a "rainy day."

When Miss Ellsworth went to the office yesterday morning she hung her hand bag in a room just off the reception room, as had been her custom for many months. In the bag were two purses, one containing $3 in silver and the other holding two $5 bills. A pair of glasses and other articles were also in the bag.

During the forenoon someone entered the room and extracted the two purses and glasses. Discovery of the theft was not made until Miss Ellsworth went to get the handbag before going out to lunch.

The young lady was in either the waiting room or the office all the forenoon and neither heard nor saw any one enter the waiting room or the place where she left the handbag. There is absolutely no clew to the thief.

PLEADED NOT GUILTY
Austin Arcellano, arrested yesterday by Officer Dean and charged with being drunk, appeared in the city recorder's court this morning and pleaded not guilty to the charge.

The man declared he was not drunk. The arresting officer is on night duty, and hearing on the charge was deferred to late this afternoon.

FOR SPEEDING
Checks were received this morning by City Recorder Heathman from Francisco B. de Botiller and J. B. Leonard, both of Los Angeles, who were arrested in this city Sunday for speeding. Each contributed $10.

Mills for the movie actors, who have been invited to this city to attend the "Movie Day" celebration Saturday, August 19. Mr. Mills, who is manager of the local dancing pavilion, asserts that he will see that all movie actors—big or little—renowned or otherwise—enjoy themselves.

U. S. SOCCERITES MEET SWEDES AT STOCKHOLM

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, Aug. 15.—The All-American Soccer Team is here and ready today to meet the All-Stockholm aggregation in the only 1916 international soccer contest scheduled. The Americans are acclimated and prepared to give the Swedes a big run for their money.

A second game with the same aggregation will be played the 15th and on Aug. 22d the All-Swede eleven will battle the Americans. From here the Americans will go to Gothenburg where they play August 25th. The tour will close with the final game at Christiania on the 28th.

The American aggregation, which sailed from Hoboken for Christiania late in July, is the guest in Norway and Sweden of the Stockholm Gymnastic and Sporting association and is made up of the following players under the direction of Thomas W. ## HOP HARVEST BEGINS SANS LABOR TROUBLES

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 15.—The harvesting of the 1916 California hop crop started in this week under very favorable conditions, marked by the absence of labor troubles.

Reports from the State Bureau of Housing and Immigration show a peaceful situation, although individual owners have taken necessary precautions against possible incendiary attempts to destroy property.

The 1916 crop is reported to be about normal, with the local market prospect encouraging. The hops will necessarily command a good price as the labor bill of the hop men throughout the state is estimated at about $2,000,000, while the cost of supplies is about $1,000,000.

M'BRIDE TO DRILL YOUNG CAMPAIGNERS

(Contributed)

Tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock Captain McBride of Company L will meet the Young Campaigners in Armory hall on Birch street and give them some instructions in real military drilling. All the members of Company A must be there and learn how to march and do their work in a soldierly manner. It is very kind of Captain McBride to help the boys and girls to start right and it is hoped there will be a large attendance to take advantage of this splendid opportunity. Any boy or girl who brings seven new recruits will be made corporal of that squad and be presented with a new cap, pennant and flag. Now, get to work at once and get up your squads and be on hand tomorrow afternoon when Captain McBride will tell you what to do and how to do it.

Smart, well-behaved boys are wanted as officers in this regiment. Girls who will take an interest in this splendid work are also wanted.

Companies have already been formed throughout Orange county and when all are drilled and equipped will form a regiment of the finest young folks in the state of California. This regiment will play an important part in making California dry and will assist in public meetings, entertainments, medal contests, parades, picnics and many other things.

Girls in their "teens" are wanted for leaders and to take part in a new and wonderfully interesting spectacular presentation of a great truth in a beautiful object lesson.

The Belle Rogers W. C. T. U. meetings will be devoted to this work during the remainder of August and all who wish to co-operate are cordially invited to do so. Mrs. H. Clay Kellogg, the faithful and efficient superintendent, has taken great pains with the young people, and the demonstrations to be given will be testimonials of her devotion and ability.

After the drill in the Armory tomorrow afternoon the Campaigners will march to Birch Park, where a little surprise will await them.

WABASH-PITTSBURG RAILWAY ON BLOCK

PITTSBURG, Aug. 15.—The Wabash-Pittsburg Terminal Railway is up for sale by a master at the company's building here today. The Erie was expected to be the most interested bidder. The price wanted is about $3,000,000.

The Erie may be a purchaser of the Wheeling & Lake Erie Railroad before long, according to gossip in railroad circles. The Pennsylvania, because of the United States Supreme Court's decree dissolving the Northern Securities company, cannot acquire either the Wabash-Pittsburg or the Wheeling & Lake Erie.

The Erie, by getting hold of the latter, would have ready-built connection between its own lines and the Wabash-Pittsburg.

IF TOO FAT GET MORE FRESH AIR

BE MODERATE IN YOUR DIET AND REDUCE YOUR WEIGHT. TAKE OIL OF KOREIN

Lack of fresh air it is said weakens the oxygen carrying power of the blood, the liver becomes sluggish, fat accumulates and the action of many of the vital organs are hindered thereby. The heart action becomes weak, work is an effort and the beauty of the figure is destroyed.

Fat put on by indoor life is unhealthy and if nature is not assisted in throwing it off a serious case of obesity may result. When you feel that you are getting too stout, take the matter in hand at once. Don't wait until your figure has become a joke and your health ruined through carrying around a burden of unsightly and unhealthy fat. Spend as much time as you possibly can in the open air; breathe deeply, and get from Rowley Drug Co. or any druggist a box of oil of Korein capsules; take one after each meal and one before retiring at night.

Weigh yourself every few days and keep up the treatment until you are down to normal. Oil of Korein is absolutely harmless, is pleasant to take, helps the digestion and even a few days' treatment has been reported to show a noticeable reduction in weight.

EDITORIAL PAGE OF THE SANTA ANA DAILY REGISTER

AN ADDRESS TO PROGRESSIVES

BY RAYMOND ROBBINS, CHAIRMAN OF THE PROGRESSIVE NATIONAL CONVENTION

A Political Classic

The Register is pleased to present herewith one of the ablest and clearest reviews and analysis of the national political situation that has been our pleasure and profit to read. It is so sincere and straight-forward, so frank, so free from partisan prejudice or personality as to render it truly a political classic.

To My Fellow Progressives:

For some years prior to 1912 in common with other progressive citizens, I had hoped for a new cleavage in American political life—a cleavage that would bury the dead issues of 1860, wipe out sectional lines and prejudices and comprehending the vital social and economic issues of the twentieth century, would divide American political parties along true lines of honest progressive and honest conservative sentiment. When Colonel Roosevelt voiced this need and desire and declared himself willing to serve in realizing a genuine progressive and liberal party, I in common with over four million voters responded to his call.

In our first campaign while the actual vote was an extraordinary testimony to Colonel Roosevelt's personal popularity, we elected no single Progressive governor, nor legislature, nor sufficient members to be even a balance of power in Congress. This however was no discouragement to those Progressives who did not seek office and were ready to fight on through any number of defeats to gain a genuine victory. In 1914 we had a real test of the Progressive voters of 1912 and the willingness of the American people to use a new party in the practical solution of the problems of our political life. Generally throughout the nation the Progressive candidates—embracing its most gifted leaders and all generously supported by Colonel Roosevelt and as a rule fairly treated by the daily press—ran a bad third. Nearly three-fourths of the Progressive voters of 1912 refused to support the Progressive candidates in 1914. Moreover the acid test of the party loyalty of the voter is not found in his support of party candidates in a general election, but in his willingness to enroll or register in the primaries of his party. By this test throughout the union the Progressive voters of 1912 declared in overwhelming majority that they regarded the Progressive candidates as the representatives of a protest and not a party—of a mere revolt rather than a permanent political cleavage.

Under our system of government the voters are at last supreme. No gifts of leadership nor merit of program can finally drive the American people into a party against their will. In the 1914 and 1916 primaries the Progressive voters of 1912 deliberately and in overwhelming numbers abandoned the Progressive party.

The efforts of Colonel Roosevelt's friends to secure his nomination by both the Republican and Progressive conventions was a mere recognition of this fact. Colonel Roosevelt's declaration to run as the Progressive candidate only, simply declared his acceptance of the verdict of the voters as delivered by them in the primaries of 1914 and 1916. The refusal of the Progressive National Committee to favor a third ticket candidacy did no more than make final the judgment entered by the Progressive voters themselves.

While I had hoped against hope that the extraordinary events in this epochal hour might over-rule the verdict of the voters, and under the leadership of Colonel Roosevelt the Progressive party might yet dominate the situation, nevertheless, when the Progressive convention had adjourned and the entire situation was considered—it was manifest that the end which the voters had decreed had come—that the Progressive party was dead. The Progressive movement and progress of 1912 having failed as a permanent political party, and the verdict of the voters having been rendered in favor of Democratic and Republican parties as the instruments of their organized political action; what is the present duty of the men and women who were loyal to the Progressive party and who believe in Progressive principles? In which of these dominant parties in the long run will Progressive principles find most effective support, and where will the rank and file and leadership of the Progressive party find the largest co-operation in the service of our common country? While this question must at last be settled in the individual mind and heart, we are grateful for honest counsel one with another.

Which Party Holds the Better Hope?

For myself, I cannot determine this question by the merit of candidates and platforms alone. Platforms change with each campaign and leaders come and go. Should we not consider that drift of opinion—almost glacial in slowness and certainty—whereby the permanent voting mass in each party inevitably determines the topography of our political world? Is there not a main current underneath the changing surface eddies, a purpose and tendency of the rank and file voters in the one party as opposed to the other, that abides? If so, which party through such mass drift, such tendency of its permanent rank and file, holds the better hope of Progressive principles in the solution of our domestic problems and international policy? The answer to this question is twofold, first the character and environment of the primary voter mass control, and second the permanent achievements of its leadership.

The primary voter mass control of the Democratic party is in fifteen southern and southwestern states and in the industrial cities of the nation. The fixed southern control of the Democratic party is individualistic in its thinking, sectional in its sympathies and inherits a tradition against common labor as servile. The social organization is still semi-patriarchal in the rural communities and the southern environment presents the maximum of natural and cultural resistance to necessary social and industrial standardization. The Democratic primary voter mass control in the industrial cities is the most heterogeneous of our national groups and the excessive pressure of living and industrial conditions renders it the most fertile field for boss control in the service of selfish and personal and corporate interests.

The primary voter mass control of the Republican party is in the rural communities of the central, western and New England states. This group represents the highest literacy in America, is freest from severe social and economic pressure, is in the zone of the greatest natural tendency to industrial standardization and equality of opportunity, and inherits the tradition of Lincoln and the men who saved the union.

The Republican party—though often dominated by the masters of special privilege and made by them the instrument of vast exploitation—has a rank and file of men and women who have proved their capacity to reject false or dishonest leadership. Conceived in moral revolt against human slavery, it was born, baptized and nurtured in the supreme national struggle to maintain the national heritage and fulfill the promise of equal opportunity to every citizen. Is not the rank and file best calculated to support a leadership that will create a national mind and conscience, and having preserved the integrity of the nation against the heresy of secession, will it not develop and maintain a progressive national program of social and economic organization?

Test of Republican Achievement

Let us now turn to the test of actual achievements in progressive legislation and administration. The freest and most progressive state in this union is California. Eight years ago it was a rotten borough and had been under shameful and corrupt corporate and boss control for a generation. Twenty years ago able and honest progressive Democrats were fighting in that state for reform. They led in the education of the people but the rank and file of the Democratic party refused to follow their leadership. How was the actual deliverance of California achieved? By the rank and file of the Republican voters under the leadership of Hiram W. Johnson. The second freest state in this union is Wisconsin. Twenty years ago the brewery ring of Milwaukee and the railroad ring of Madison controlled that state. Which party redeemed Wisconsin? The rank and file of the Republican party under the leadership of Robert M. LaFollette. After long years of shameful corruption and misgovernment Pennsylvania has made a notable advance toward decent government and progressive policies in the last two years. Here again the rank and file of the Republican voters under the leadership of Governor Brumbaugh is breaking boss control of government in the Keystone State.

When New Hampshire broke the bonds of her railroad ring, how was the victory won? Through Robert P. Bass and Winston Churchill supported by the rank and file of the Republican party.

My home state of Illinois is an illuminating example of the general experience. We have had able progressive Democratic leadership and within the past decade have won both the city and the state governments. Yet permanent gains for progressive principles have been practically nil. A fatal incapacity for efficient administration or fundamental progressive legislation seems to rest upon the Democratic party in Illinois. After sixteen years, during twelve of which I served with the Progressive Democrats, the Democratic party is more completely under the control of a corporation boss who represents the worst in our political system than at any other time in twenty years. The present administration at Washington has helped rather than hindered the growth of this boss control of the Democratic party in Illinois. The progressive Democrats of Illinois are a heart-sick minority. The progressive Republicans are a militant and—properly organized—will be a triumphant majority. The final regeneration of the government of this state will have to be won by the leadership of progressives in the Republican party supported by its rank and file.

When the hour came to break the control of the corrupt plutocracy and the bosses over the national government, again it was the rank and file of the progressive Republican voters that sustained the leadership in the White House and Congress which laid the foundation of effective progressive opinion and finally culminated in the revolt of 1912. It was the fear of this progressive spirit that nominated Mr. Wilson over the choice of the Democratic rank and file in the Baltimore convention; that maintained President Wilson's control over Congress; that dictated the progressive planks in the Democratic platform in St. Louis and nominated Mr. Hughes in the Republican convention at Chicago. It was progressive Republicans that furnished 95 per cent of the leadership and 80 per cent of the voters for the Progressive candidates in 1912.

Nationalism versus Sectionalism the Issue

The national conscience now aroused must be made effective. It must develop a national mind that will comprehend our social, industrial and military unpreparedness. It must appreciate the domestic injury and national danger that lies in our lack of a definite foreign policy. It must realize that we will be as unprepared for peace as we are unprepared for war. The supreme need in American political life is leadership supported by a voting rank and file that will organize and maintain an adequate, social, industrial and military preparedness, together with a comprehensive foreign policy.

The first step in social preparedness is woman suffrage to protect our children and homes from the incompetence, corruption and vice of our municipal housekeeping.

We need industrial preparedness with a program of standardization in our economic life. For the workers, we need living wages, fair hours of labor, workshop sanitation and fire protection, with accident, sickness, old age and unemployment insurance. Trade agreements and arbitration should take the place of individual exploitation and industrial civil war. For capital, we need the intelligent co-operation of government both at home and abroad. When this is over we will face the most intense industrial competition that the world of commerce has ever known. A comprehensive protection of the home market and support for American foreign trade is indispensable if we are to preserve industrial prosperity. For both capital and labor, we should develop a progressive policy in taxation that will lift the fiscal burdens of government from labor and enterprise and place them upon monopoly and privilege. Graduated progressive taxation upon incomes, inheritances and land values must be a part of any adequate preparedness program.

We need universal service and military training of the youth of America. This will do more in one generation to break down class and sectional prejudice, develop disciplined, vigorous and efficient citizenship, and to unify the diverse groups of our national life in a vital Americanism than all other forces combined. It will destroy militarism and military caste, while providing that genuine preparedness for efficiency in time of peace and defense against aggression in time of war which is needed in every citizenship. This is the policy of the labor government of Australia and the democratic people's government in Switzerland and is worthy of the vigorous support of every informed progressive in America.

We need a comprehensive foreign policy that will accept the facts of the world situation and our obligations under the Monroe Doctrine; the open door in China; and the Exclusion Acts; and prepare adequately to maintain our right part in the world movement, advancing the democratic purpose and human interests in the international field as against the domination of privilege, autocracy and militarism.

Can these imperative national needs be worked out by a states' right Democratic party that plans a state dominated militia with its tendency to shiftless incompetence, spoils politics and organized snobbery as a national defense force, at a time of world peril? More and more it becomes plain that most of our pressing problems of large import are national in scope and will yield only to national action. Yet we find in the Democratic party the modern, and let us hope the last, stronghold of the advocates of local seigniority. This doctrine of individualism, sectionalism and disunion menaced and almost prevented the freeing of the colonies from foreign domination. This doctrine well nigh defeated the adoption of a unifying constitution wherein the American nation became a fact. This doctrine after sixty years almost overthrew the national structure in dissension over the issue of slavery. This doctrine since the Civil War has delayed national legislation so urgently needed to solve the problems of pure food, transportation, child labor and conservation. Wherever the fight for more efficient and more humane government has been waged this baneful doctrine of States' Rights has been invoked to rally and shelter the anti-social forces, to arouse sectional bias, local jealousy and all the mean, narrow passions that hold men's eyes upon the ground, when great human needs call upon them to look beyond the rough and dusty roads to the far country that is worth the toil and sacrifice of the long, hard journey.

Can a Progressive Hesitate Long?

Comprehending our national necessities, how can a Progressive hesitate long to choose between the party of nationalism and the party of sectionalism? Should not wise and sincere Progressives go on mass into the Republican primaries and fight shoulder to shoulder with progressive Republicans, help and be helped in our common struggle for social and industrial justice in city, state and nation? If this is generally done the common bonds of fellowship for the past four years will not be broken but rather augmented, and we can continue to work together and bring back a chastened Republican party to its ancient faith in human rights and national integrity, which made its triumph under Lincoln's leadership the supreme achievement of the democratic spirit in the history of mankind.

The present leader of the Republican party won his reputation as the progressive Republican Governor of New York. He there proved himself completely independent of all boss control and demonstrated that he will take advice from many but dictation from none. His words have been made good by deeds. His leadership is the fruit of the Progressive movement in American politics. His nomination was not two hours old when the most resourceful general of the "old guard" was dropped overboard into political oblivion. The forced retirement of William Barnes, Jr., was the "high sign" to all who wish to know and understand that the control of the Republican party had passed forever from the "old guard" of 1912. Mr.

Being Beautiful

Writers continue to lay down with pleasing confidence the rules for being beautiful.

The essential rule is to be born that way. Compliance with it is possible by careful regulation of the prenatal influences affecting your great-grandmother.

Suggestive

Here is a description of an individual taken from an English print: "A social anarchist with a malady of abnormal egoism, who floated into modern notoriety on calf lymph and has reached his opprobrious apotheosis in a pharisaical funk."

Cut out the lymph and the man this fits might be named instantly by millions of Americans.

Have the type abroad, too, do they?

Useless Warning

Married after a courtship that, with the preliminary of getting acquainted, occupied almost eleven days, a young woman emits a wail of warning, pouring the main volume of it into the ear of the divorce judge.

No use. A girl that would marry a stranger hasn't sense enough to know a warning if she were whacked over the ivory knob with it.

Senator Lewis

Jim Ham, he has a beard of pink, A lovely piece of work, I think. But when his chin awaking goes I'd gladly dam the tide that flows Through those pink curtains, but I must Remember, in that case, he'd bust.

Catch 'Em Asleep?

"Robbed 100 in Bare Feet." Head line.

Not Impairing Their Capital

"Casualties no larger than we could afford," says a report from the front. Sure. There are plenty more men where these dead came from.

Others Also

The Mexican situation is said to have caused Amador, a statesman, to be very ill.

Did more than that for a lot of Americans. It killed 'em.

Misers

Still there is evidence of desire to point of the good points in the character of Hetty Green.

There were no good points in it. It is not too much to say that she was as mean as Russell Sage; which is to go to the limit of condemnation.

Miserliness is wholly unlovely. Carried to the extreme that it was by this pair it was a disease. The attempt to make it desirable is a waste of energy.

Besides, there are plenty of good men and women to talk about.

Wisdom

After patient investigation a Massachusetts commission found that a woman in that state could not live on less than $8.98 a week, and for this reason decreed that her minimum wages must be $8.75.

Thus it may be seen that by working herself to death in a reasonable time she may have the joy of going hence without leaving more than a moderate indebtedness. She needn't

L. A. OFFICER FOILS ATTEMPT OF FORGER SUSPECT AT SUICIDE

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 15.—Tortured by his conscience, Frank L. Whittier, confessed forger, early today raised a bottle of poison to his lips as he stood on the curb at First and Main streets.

Patrolman C. G. Smith observed him and knocked the bottle from his grasp.

"Let me die!" cried Whittier. "I am not fit to live. I am a criminal. I have been convicted for forgery. I tried to live straight. For a long time I did, but I could not prosper. Yesterday I had to have money. I forged again."

Patrolman Smith brought him to the police station and booked him on a charge of suspicion of forgery. His case is being investigated today.

CAPITOL SIGN TAKEN DOWN, REMARKED KERN

WASHINGTON.—A well-dressed tourist stopped Democratic Leader Kern in front of the Capitol.

"What building is that?" he asked.

"The Capitol of the United States," replied Kern, with just the suggestion of a smile.

"Well, there ain't no sign up," retorted Mr. Tourist.

"My dear sir, they take the sign down in hot weather," answered Mr. Kern.

FASHION LETTER

BY MARGARET MASON
(Written for the United Press)
Luella travels all the while,
She's never seen at home;
Her travel togs become her so,
She simply has to roam.

NEW YORK, August 15.—Traveling made becoming! That's what the stunning new travel togs do for the busy little globe trotters. Hats, coats, veils, bags and boxes, they are all smart as smart can be.

The newest travel coats come in striking shades of tobacco brown, mustard, peacock blue and emerald green and hang voluminously full from narrow shoulders or narrow yokes. High patch pockets are much in evidence and buttons big as silver dollars or even doughnuts.

Of a certainty, if your coat is peacock blue your toilet case too must be that hue. These fascinating receptacles, when of the colored leather, are built like small suitcases, but the regular traveling bag-shaped ones are all of either dark leather or pig skin and then lined to match your color scheme.

It is easier to enumerate what these Pandora treasure boxes do not contain than what they do. Everything appertaining to a fastidious feminine toilet is there. The complete beauty parlor to be toted at ease by a red cap and be at your service by land or sea as first aids to your capture of all nationalities of male.

There are of course hair brushes, comb and mirror, clothes brush, nail brush and nail brush, a complete manicure outfit, an electric curling iron, soap box, tooth brush case and innumerable boxes and jars for coldcream, powder, rouge, scents and lotions.

Button hook, shoe horn and hairpin boxes also lurk in ambush.

These articles are most adequate in ivory monogrammed or striped in black or gold, but an edition de luxe is exquisite in crystal, gilt and enamel.

There are the complete sewing kits too in either leather or cretonne-covered boxes so that you can darn or tatten en route and make the famous little stitch in time that saves nine.

For the thrifty traveler who loves to put out a wash in the privacy of her stateroom or hotel domicile there is a three-pound electric iron that will turn upside down and let you heat water on it. It is made with a hole in one end where you may heat your curling iron and it all packs up in a small velvet bag of nine by seven inches.

For further aid to the traveling laundress come in either little silk or leather-covered envelope cases one-half dozen tiny clothes pins, a stout cord wound on a flat card and two glass-headed thumb tacks whereon to hang your line.

The wardrobe trunks have reached a pinnacle of excellence which makes them, with their hangers and drawers, as complete as your own closet and dresser at home; and the hat boxes of leather with handles so that they may be carried on your way, or the larger hat trunks fitted with padded head rests for six and eight hats and a tray for your hat pins, gloves and veils, making going away quite as convenient and comfortable as staying at home, and twice as fascinating.

IRVINE COMPANY PLANS RANCH DRAINAGE WORK

The Irvine Company is making preparations for extensive drainage work on the lowlands on the big ranch. A Marion dredger arrived here for the company recently and when it is assembled it will be put to work making laterals to a main canal now leading to the head of Newport bay.

A large number of acres of land not now planted to beets will be made available for the sugar producers when the full drainage system is completed, and many acres now devoted to beets will be made more productive and valuable by the work.

Between 600 and 700 acres will come under the proposed system.

It is expected the dredger will be ready for operation within ten days. The machine cost between $4000 and $5000. No definite estimate has been made of the probable cost of the proposed work, which will probably extend over a period of three or four years.

WATCHING OTHER CAR; YORBA HITS ELECTRIC

V. G. Yorba of Yorba came near taking part in a wreck yesterday. If there had been a wreck it would have been his automobile that was most concerned, unless Yorba himself happened to get tangled in the mess. As it was, the occurrence brought only a smashed front wheel. Yorba was driving his machine near the corner of Broadway and West Fourth streets yesterday afternoon. The descendant of the first pioneer of the Santa Ana canyon had his eye on a street car coming in from Los Angeles, and he did not see one that was going from Santa Ana toward Los Angeles. He was not going fast. The step of the electric car smashed a wheel of the automobile. Officer Carter reported the matter to police headquarters.

AMUSEMENTS

At the West End
In the role of Myra, the fascinating heroine of E. Phillips Oppenheimer's thrilling story, "The World's Great Snare," which is being shown at the West End Theater tonight and tomorrow, Pauline Frederick is endowed with numerous opportunities to display the charm, magnetism, and emotional power that have made her one of the foremost favorites of the screens.

As a cabaret dancer, who smiles gaily upon the world, but whose heart conceals crushing sorrows and despair, Miss Frederick contributes one of the most powerful and sympathetic characterizations in all filmdom. Irving Cummings, the popular film favorite, plays opposite Miss Frederick in this splendid Paramount offering.

Pictures of Disaster
With the memory of the great $50,000,000 ammunition explosion and fire at New York fresh in the minds of all, the pictures of that great disaster shown at the Temple Theater tonight and tomorrow night will be of intense interest here. The explosion of ammunition and cars of dynamite set fire to the piers and ships. Several states were shaken by the explosion. It is a wonderful news picture.

BUYS WATCH AT S. F. SALE, RECOGNIZES IT AS ONE ONCE STOLEN

SAN FRANCISCO.—Harvey Jacobson of Los Angeles dropped in at the police sale of unclaimed goods.

"What am I offered?" cried the auctioneer, swinging a watch above the crowd.

"Four bits," suggested Jacobson, and secured the bit of jewelry.

When he received the timepiece Jacobson started with surprise. "Gee, that's my brother's watch," he declared. "It was stolen from him a long time ago and he gave it up for lost. That's getting it back cheap at that."

The Blushing Bride

"Why are brides generally expected to be blushing as they walk down the aisle?"

"I suppose," replied Suffron Long, glancing cautiously about and lowering his voice, "that a good many of them blush to think how they are going to subdue the lords of creation after they've safely got them."—Judge.

FANNIE'S LATEST GOWN.

Fannie Ward, Lasky Star, in Paramount Pictures.

Fannie Ward, the beautiful Lasky star in Paramount Pictures, when she left for her vacation in New York city took two trunks with her. When she returned to the studio in California she had five and announced that two more were coming by express. Jack Dean, her husband, explained it by making the remark that if anybody in New York wanted a new gown they would have to send out to Miss Ward for them, as she got all there were in that city. Jack also asserted that he was kept so busy paying costumers' and milliners' bills that he did not have time to get measured for as much as a handkerchief.

STOPS MOLTEN STEEL INGOT; LOSES FOOT

LEWISTOWN, Pa.—Grant T. Morrison, thirty-five years old, lost his right leg while working in the rolled steel wheel department of the Standard steel works. A steel ingot at a white heat and weighing 800 pounds was being rolled into a car wheel under hydraulic pressure of 3,000,000 pounds to the square inch when thrown from the manipulator, and Morrison rushed in to protect other workmen. The crude wheel passed over his foot and that member disappeared in a "pull" of steam.

EACH VOTE FOR SELF; WHO'S NOMINATED

SIGEL, Ill.—First steps were taken here to untangle Sigel's election middle, which grew out of a primary election held when three candidates on two tickets were to be nominated for membership on the village board of trustees. As the situation stands today, before any decisions have been made, only one man on the people's ticket has been nominated, but six men and a woman are tied for places on the same ticket.

Officials did not print the names on the primary ballots. When election day came, almost every man in the village—and a few women—voted for themselves. There were in all thirty candidates, and only fifty-four votes were cast.

CURED OF INSANITY, RICH SWEDS RETURN TO NATIVE COUNTRY

Among the thirty-one are three who will go back to their homes in Sweden, having almost fully recovered. They are wealthy and will make the trip across the ocean at their own expense, having provided also for an attendant to look after them while en route.

2,500 U. S. NAVY ROOKIES START CRUISE TODAY

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—Two thousand five hundred potential sailors—erstwhile private citizens of the United States, whose naval experience heretofore has been nil, started out from eastern seaports today for a four-weeks' cruise in the interest of naval preparedness, a sort of Naval Plattsburg, personally conducted by the Navy Department.

The cruise is the first of its sort—for civilians who want to learn navy ways. The men will do just what the Annapolis men do on their cruises: learn how to work a ship and fire guns, and, incidentally, how to keep the brasswork shiny.

Many of the sailors are university men; others are mechanics, radio and telegraph operators, men with and without sea experience. They range in years from 19 to an admitted 45, and in wealth from $4 a week to $4 a minute.

As planned by the Navy, the cruise will provide a naval reserve—apart from the naval militia—that will be available in time of war. Eight ships are doing the work of carrying the recruits.

The Kearsarge, sailing from Portland, Me., with about 80 recruits; the Virginia from Boston with about 463; and from Newport with about 28; the Maine and Kentucky from New York with about 943; the Rhode Island from Philadelphia with about 379; the Illinois from Norfolk with about 461 and the Alabama from Charleston with about 101 men.

The recruits' day will start at just about the time some of them have been starting for the all-night athletic clubs for a combination late supper and early breakfast—4 a. m. It ends at 9:05 p. m. It includes everything from holystoning a deck to learning what makes a turret turn, and why.

It won't be all work and no play, though. Plans include regattas, baseball games between ship teams and swimming contests. All the 2,500 will have a chance to get a breath of salt air and a set of sea legs. Many of them, it is expected, will join naval militia organizations after their first experience with battleships. They will be asked when the cruise is over whether they will volunteer if the United States has war within the next four years.

An important feature of the cruise will be the demonstration along the Atlantic coast during the last days of the cruise, of the efficiency of motor boats for home defense against submarines. Such of the 2,500 as own motor boats along the Atlantic coast will bring them out and learn how to sneak up behind a submarine and bash up its periscope or otherwise run. Navy submarines will be buffers for the motorboat men. They will spend part of the time as the attackers and part of the time as the prey of the "wasp fleet."

The Navy Department has high hopes for the cruise. It expects it to result in a real naval reserve that on almond growing in the Templeton-Paso Robles district, by Mr. E. W. Parker every day, promptly at 11 o'clock a. m., at the Chamber of Commerce of Los Angeles. You will be well repaid for your half hour's time listening to his interesting and instructive talk illustrated with many views of orchards, individual trees and natural scenes of wonderful beauty. Since I first told you through the medium of this paper that the Templeton-Paso Robles country possessed a combination of conditions—climate, scenic, quality of soil and abundance of rainfall, wide variety of products, market facilities and social advantages—possessed by no other one locality in the state, many new people have located there, several thousand acres of new orchards have been planted and through the publicity given the Atascadero Colony the district is fast becoming nationally famous. It's a fine place for a home, a good place to make money, land prices still low. Now is a good time to buy large or small. I am sure if you drop me a one cent postal with your name and address plainly written, the booklet I will send you will give you much valuable information.

WEST'S CHEVY CHASE AT LAKE GENEVA OPEN

LAKE GENEVA, Wis., Aug. 15.—One hundred and fifty middle west women went into military training today when Navy League National Service School No. 3 opened here.

Women from every walk of life; the ball room, shop, store and kitchen; married and single, domed blouses, blouses, skirts, and leggings and began a systematic training for field life in war. The women will be in training fifteen days.

For the training, each woman paid $2 a day or $30 for the "course." If these women like it—and there didn't seem to be any possibility but that they would—another class of 100 will start September 1.

This school is to be a duplicate of the first and second schools which were located at Chevy Chase, Md., and San Francisco. William Mather Lewis, secretary of the Navy League, said today.

The women will live in a tent. There will be an auto corps with automobile ambulances. Two physicians will instruct the women in first aid. Also there will be courses in regular calisthenics, wireless telegraphy, Morse telegraphy, and simple signals. A corps of buglers to be loaned by the Navy Department is here to sound taps and other calls.

The patronesses of the camp are: Mesdames Arthur T. Addis, J. Ogden Armour, Hobart Chatfield-Taylor, Frederick D. Countess, Ambrose Cramer, R. P. Davidson, William Mather Lewis, John J. Mitchell, and W. A. Moffett.

LAKE FOREST, Ill., Aug. 15.—First play in the preliminary national tennis doubles started on the Onwentsia Club courts here today.

Competing against each other were teams which had won sectional championships in the East, Middle Atlantic, Southern, Western, Southwestern, Northwestern, Missouri Valley and the Pacific Coast.

The winners of the preliminary doubles will play Messrs. William M. Johnson and Clarence J. Griffin, present holders, for the national doubles championship, during the week of the National Championship tournament, at the West Side Tennis Club, New York. The National Championship tournament begins on August 28.

CLUB WOMEN OF CAL. EXERCISED OVER U. S. HERITAGE TAX BILL

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 15.—The club women of the state are becoming very much exercised over the Federal inheritance tax bill.

Until recently the situation was in fine shape to bring up at the next Legislature the exemption of the wife's half of community property from the inheritance tax, thus placing her upon an equal footing with the husband.

This would have saved the widows in the state a very considerable amount of money, but the Federal Government has stepped in with an unexpected tax which probably will take away not only all that would be saved by the proposed legislative exemption, but considerably more. Hence the organization of their efforts by the women's clubs to bring pressure to bear to remove the Federal tax.

FINANCIAL PAPER TELLS OF MERGER, WARPLANE PLANTS

The Boston News Bureau, a financial paper, has a front page article on the consolidation of the Wright and Glenn L. Martin aeroplane factories and the Simplex automobile and motor plant into the Wright-Martin Aircraft Corporation.

The article includes the following: The new corporation will be the Wright-Martin Aircraft Corporation with $5,000,000 seven per cent cumulative convertible preferred stock and 500,000 shares of common of no par value, issued under the laws of New York state.

"President Hagar says that Mr. Martin has long been known as the most careful builder of aeroplanes and hydro-aeroplanes. His aeroplanes for the United States government are the only ones free from serious accidents, although seventy per cent of the time spent in the air by government officers has been in the Martin machines, as shown by flight records in Washington the last two years. Mr. Martin is an expert flyer, well known on the Pacific Coast, and will give his entire time in charge of the aeroplane department."

"The Simplex Automobile Company has been the builder of the highest grade and highest priced automobile engines in this country and is equipped to build the new engine, 450 of which have already been sold to the French and Russian governments. The first shipments will be made this month."

BRANDEIS DECLINES TO SERVE ON MEXICO PARLEY COMMISSION

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—Associate Justice Louis D. Brandeis has declined to serve on the Mexican Mediation Commission. He called at the White House personally to place his declination before the President. This action followed an interview with Chief Justice White at which the latter objected to nomination by a member of the United States Supreme Court in the Mexican mediation conference.

The White House gave out the text of Justice Brandeis' declination. It is as follows:

"My dear Mr. President:—I appreciate the opportunity for high service which membership on the Mexican commission would present. But upon consultation with the chief justice I find the state of the business of the supreme court at the present time to be such that it is my duty not to undertake this important additional task."

Secretary of the Interior Lane is the only one of the three members of the commission who has accepted. The name of the third member has been withheld by the White House, pending receipt of his acceptance.

GIVE SAVANTS FREE HAND IN ARGENTINE

BUENOS AIRES, Aug. 15.—The Argentine government has issued orders that every facility be extended to the members of the commission from the Smithsonian Institute at Washington who are coming here to engage in solar studies.

It is understood the commission's work will be mainly in the interior, remote from large towns, and all possible preparations are being made for its convenience. The members will be given the status of Argentine national employees that they may be entirely unhampered. The exact date of their coming has not yet been announced.

LINER'S CAPTAIN TELLS BATTLE WITH U-BOATS

NEW YORK—The Italian liner Re d'Italia, first armed merchantman to give battle to submarines, arrived here recently. The battle was between the liner and three giant super submarines in the Mediterranean sea on July 23. The fight lasted from 9 o'clock in the morning until 4 in the afternoon. One significant fact discovered as a result of the encounter is that the submarines apparently have a base in the Spanish Balearic islands in the western Mediterranean.

Three American passengers witnessed every phase of the battle. They were Dr. L. P. Koster of Philadelphia; Paul Edwards of Jersey City, and James Higgins of Cincinnati. They were the only passengers aboard.

Captain Tells of Battle

"The battle occurred two hundred miles from Genoa," said Captain Amedeo Pinotti of the Re d'Italia. "We were between the coast of Corsica and the Balearic islands when the man on the watch reported to me he had seen a periscope."

"I went aft and ordered out the crew to man the guns. There I saw a submarine in the position reported. It was a big one with two periscopes showing above the water. It was giving full chase. A few minutes later I saw another, dead astern."

"I remained on the after deck and directed the firing of the guns. The submarine continued after us, but I maneuvered the ship so as to keep them dead astern. About forty-five minutes after we first sighted them and when it was positive they were chasing us to attack, I gave the order to open fire."

Fire on Submarines

"The starboard gun was the first to fire. The shell struck the water just ahead of one submarine. The next shot fell between the two. Both these shells raised a thin column of water."

"The third shot seemed to strike squarely where the leading submarine's periscope showed above the water. This shot raised a big, wide column of smoke and water. This fact leads us to believe we hit the submarine."

"The submarines kept after us until 4 o'clock in the afternoon, when we were in sight of the Balearic islands. They left us then."

Remain Submerged

"Throughout the battle the submarines remained submerged. They maneuvered as though they were trying to get our beam to fire a torpedo. They apparently did not dare to come to the surface because of our guns. They were making twelve knots an hour under the water, about the same speed as we were, so they did not gain on us. From this speed it was evident that they could have made eighteen knots on the surface. Therefore, if we had not been armed we would surely have been sunk."

WINE TAX BATTLE IS LOST BY SEN. PHELAN

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—The Democratic Senate caucus last night completed the revenue bill. The total revenue that the bill will yield as finally agreed upon is estimated at $205,000,000 annually.

Over the opposition of Oscar Underwood, the provision calling for a non-partisan tariff commission was retained. Members of this commission will receive a salary of $7500 each.

The recommendations of the Democratic members of the finance committee on the wine schedule were adopted. The vote was 21 to 8. This schedule imposes a tax of 62 cents a gallon on the brandy spirits used by California wine makers. It was vigorously fought by Senator Phelan, who said that he will carry his fight to the floor of the Senate. He contends that the proposed law will be ruinous to the California wine industry.

The other side argued that the Missouri, Ohio, New York and other eastern wine makers are required to pay the regular tax of $1.10 a gallon on all spirits they use in fortifying their wines.

The caucus, at 11 o'clock, began consideration of the dyestuffs schedule, with strong opposition of Senators Underwood, Williams and other southern members against the proposed tariff on these dyestuffs.

The schedule was adopted as reported by the finance committee. Under this bill all duties on dyestuffs will remain as at present until after the war.

HE COULD HARDLY WALK

Ambrose Gary, Sulphur, Okla., writes: "I was bothered with kidney trouble ten years and at times could hardly walk. Three months ago I began taking Foley Kidney Pills. I got relief from the first bottle but continued to take them till I had taken three bottles. I feel like a new man. It is a wonderful medicine." No harmful drugs. Rowley Drug Co.—Advertisement.

CASE OF ATTORNEY MARSHALL UP TODAY

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—A phase of the United States House of Representatives' contempt proceedings against U. S. District Attorney H. Snowden Marshall of New York comes up in the United States Supreme Court here today.

The contempt proceedings grew out of the U. S. indictment against Congressman Frank Buchanan of Illinois and other members of Labor's National Peace council in connection with alleged German bomb plots said to have been hatched in the United States. Congressman Buchanan, charging irregularity in the actions of Marshall in handling the case before the Federal Grand jury, got a congressional investigating committee appointed to come to New York and probe Marshall's acts.

The investigating congressmen, displeased with what they considered Marshall's snippy attitude toward them and their investigation, halted him before the House of Representatives for contempt.

Marshall sought a writ of habeas corpus before Federal District Judge Hand of New York to prevent the House compelling him to appear and answer the charges. Judge Hand dismissed the habeas corpus proceedings after a hearing on its merits. Marshall has until midnight today to perfect an appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court from the dismissal of his action by Judge Hand. Marshall's petition stated that he had serious doubts as to the jurisdiction of the House in haling him before it for contempt. He also questioned the right of Speaker Clark to issue a warrant for his arrest.

HOW does he stand at the bank?

How often is this question asked, not only of the small, but the big business man? If you have a small account at the bank make up your mind to increase it. You cannot tell when you may need extra cash to extend your business. If you are right at the bank you not only have the cash at hand, but the bank will help you with a loan.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET Berries are commanding rather fancy prices at present. Strawberries yesterday were bringing 5 to 7 cents a basket and the trade eagerly purchased all it could find at those quotations. Blackberries are up to 4 cents a basket for the very best grades, although there is plenty of stuff that is still selling for 3 cents. Raspberries continue in the nature of a luxury, but a few trays entering the city daily and these selling at irregular prices.

Sugar prices will be reduced 25 cents a hundred pounds today. This applies to all grades and will make the quotation for beet granulated 7.35 and standard cane and berry 7.75. A continued weakening of the raw sugar market in New York and a decrease of spot stocks throughout the main Atlantic ports has caused an easing up of the sugar situation in the United States. With the sugar beet harvest starting, it looks as if further reductions were the order of the day, unless some unexpected circumstances arise to upset the present trend of the market.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

KELLOGG GETS THE CONTRACT

Will Commence Construction Of West Chapman Bridge Within Short Time

This afternoon the Board of Supervisors let a contract to H. Clay Kellogg of Santa Ana for the construction of a 470-foot concrete bridge on the state highway across the Santa Ana river at West Orange. The contract price is $23,554.75.

Bids for the construction of the bridge were received about two weeks ago, and at that time it developed that Kellogg was the lowest bidder. The letting of the contract, however, had to be delayed until the approval of the State Highway Commission was secured. That permission has been given.

Kellogg expects to hasten the work on the bridge in order to get it as far as possible before the rainy season starts.

Over Strip of Road

This morning the supervisors heard some of the arguments concerning the petition of Adam Zaiser and others for abandoning a seven-foot strip along the west side of Yorba street between First and Seventeenth streets, Tustin.

Attorney H. J. Forgy, representing property owners on the east side of the street, are fighting the petition. Attorney R. Y. Williams appeared for the petitioners. It appears that the road was originally laid out as a thirty-three-foot road, but only a part of it has been used. Blue gum breaks have grown for years on the west edge of the road.

The petition raises the question of dedication as against non-usage, and involves other legal questions. The matter was continued to September 6, at which time the attorneys will present a stipulation. The matter may have to go to the courts for settlement. Property owners on the west side of the road want the strip to be declared private property.

Bonds Accepted

Bonds of $1700 for material and $850 for labor have been given by H. W. McLeod and Freda Garber for Harvey Garber, who secured the contract to build the wooden bridge on Santiago boulevard across Santiago creek.

Adopt Resolution

A formal resolution was passed, giving the results of the election held for the formation of the Olive-West Orange Protection District.

The petition for the formation of the Cypress-Buena Park protection district was withdrawn. It is a part of the United district, and the property owners do not want to be in two districts.

Petition Granted

The petition of the John T. Carpenter Water Co. for permission to lay a pipeline at El Modena was granted.

THREE-MILE LIMIT TO BEAT OREGON DRY LAW

MARSHFIELD, Oregon, Aug. 15.—Life on the bounding wave may be the greatest lure to some Oregonian farmers during the Railroad Jubilee. A ship loaded with assorted liquors will be anchored just outside the three-mile limit, it was learned today. On the craft will be hoisted a huge banner inscribed with the words, "Oh, Thirst, Where Is Thy Sting?"

Take Crown Stages for Pomona and El San Bernardino County points.

DRAMA TO BE PLAYED ON FOREIGN SOIL IS CENSORED BY FRENCH

PARIS, Aug. 15.—The censor has taken in hand the repertoire of French theatrical companies playing abroad since a piece given by a French company was hissed in Madrid the other day.

The government considers that the good renown of the country requires that, when its artists make foreign tours, their programs represent what is best instead of what is worst in French dramatic art. All impresarios sending theatrical companies out of the country are now obliged to submit the pieces they intend to play to the censor before passports are given to the company.

A gradual return to the extreme freedom which prevailed at times before the war in the designing of posters has also been checked by the prefect of police. He has issued an ordinance requiring that no posters for advertisements can be placed on the walls of Paris unless the text and the designs have been approved by his office.

WILSON NOT TO GO ON STUMP TOUR CAMPAIGN

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—President Wilson will go on no "stumping tour" campaign. This was definitely decided at a luncheon today tendered by Mr. and Mrs. Wilson to members of the Democratic Campaign Committee.

From time to time the President will accept invitations from different parts of the country but the only trips thus far decided are to Hodgkiss, Ky., September 4, and St. Louis, September 29. On September 2 he will go to Long Branch, where, at 4 p. m., he will receive his notification.

THEFT SUSPECTS FLEE SHOT HAIL NEAR L. A.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 15.—Pistol shots punctured a wild automobile chase after two robber suspects by deputy sheriffs, who, responding to a hurry call, encountered the duo in the Venice boulevard early today.

As the officers reached the beach in a high-powered machine they almost collided in the darkness with another automobile which was speeding toward Los Angeles. A stern order to halt was ignored and the officers swerved their car and swung into pursuit.

The fleeing car was too fleet to be overtaken and the deputies, drawing their heavy revolvers, fired shot after shot.

They believe at least one took effect, as a cry of pain rang out toward the close of the firing. But the machine held to the high speed and outdistancing the county car eluded the officers in the darkness.

The deputies, when they encountered the supposed robbers, were answering a call from Harry Amos, a young traveling man, who had reported that two men in an automobile had stolen a suitcase from him when he stepped inside a beach resort. The suitcase is said to have contained valuables worth several hundred dollars.

TRADE COMMISSIONER FAVORS WEBB BILL

CHICAGO, Aug. 15.—At the close of the present European war the United States "must have the same size guns for competing in foreign markets that our battleships are now equipped with," according to E. N. Hurley, chairman of the federal trade commission, in a published statement here today. He declared that while congress has passed many bills which will be helpful to business after the world war is over, they will be for naught unless the Webb bill, now pending, is also passed.

SUPREME COURT HEARING WILL BE THURSDAY

Attorney General Calls District Attorney and Clerk To Make Defense

The action brought by Walter Bordwell, former candidate for the Republican nomination for United States senator, by which Bordwell hopes to compel County Clerk W. B. Williams of this county, and other county clerks, to keep his name off of the Republican primary ballot to be heard August 23, has been set for hearing at 10 o'clock next Thursday before the supreme court in San Francisco.

The mandamus proceedings against Williams constitute a test case to decide the question as to whether or not a candidate can withdraw his name after the secretary of state has certified the lists to the county clerks.

District Attorney West endeavored to get the attorney general to appear in the case, but over the long distance telephone this morning, the attorney general insisted that the district attorney and clerk appear in person. West and Williams will leave for San Francisco tonight, and tomorrow the answer in the case will be prepared in San Francisco and filed in time for the hearing Thursday morning.

He was taken before Justice Bowditch and while the attention of the officers was diverted elsewhere for a few seconds he jumped from an open window and landed unhurt twenty-five feet below.

He jumped from the frying pan into the fire, however, as he landed in the female department of the bath house and had a score of irate women after him in a second. He was recaptured and locked up. R. L. Peck of Long Beach is the complaining witness.

Be Careful In Using Soap on Your Hair

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle. The best thing to use is just plain mulified coconut oil, for it is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats the most expensive soaps or anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy, and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

News From Co. L

NOGALES, Ariz., Aug. 13.—Another week has gone by and we are still sticking around, although we expect to move our camp within a few days, a little further from town, but we should worry as long as the Y. M. C. A. is going to put up a building for the sole use of the California men.

Private Frye gave Admiral Buys a bath this morning. The admiral certainly likes his clean-up, the men always see that Billy gets what is coming to him.

This morning we were on fatigue and were put to cutting weeds. It was not long before the boys had the weeds all cleaned away.

It was reported in the company street that Corporal King had gone over to the bath house this morning and had washed every piece of clothing he had with him and had to send out a hurry-up call for dry clothing.

The Y. M. C. A. is a busy place this afternoon. There are men here from all parts of the U. S. writing letters.

Corporal "Fuzzy" Mix has gone into the barber business. This morning he endeavored to cut Private Dahl's hair. I don't know just how he got along but Dahl seems to be satisfied. It was also noticed that Private Spaeth and Corporal Buchheim were parading up and down the street with big smiles on their faces. Each had a fresh hair-cut.

Our bugler, Private Kubitz, is getting to be a well known specimen collector, as he is not only collecting specimens but he is having them sent in to him. His latest addition was a large butterfly.

Today was a wash day for several of the boys. Some of those who did not have clothes to wash or were not detailed went to services held by Captain Shaw, our regimental chaplain.

The men are still looking for the ghost to walk but no one has seen him yet.

Captain Shaw will speak in the evening at the army Y. M. C. A. We were given another dish yesterday. It was a little granite soup.

bowl. It is one of the handiest dishes that we have had since they have begun to serve us with soups and mush.

It has just now started to rain and the Y. M. C. A. building gives us shelter, but we all have to get back to camp for retreat at 5 o'clock. We can't miss that under any circumstances because it would mean a little more extra duty.

Yesterday was sleep day for most of the boys because we were relieved of guard duty at 1:30 in the afternoon. Company L was complimented on the excellent appearance it made in posting the reliefs. It was said to be one of the best set of guards that the camp has ever had. The non-commissioned officers are to be complimented on the way they handled their own relief.

We had rifle inspection yesterday morning by our company officers, quarters inspection by Major Allen and a general inspection by Lieutenant Colonel Saltmarsh. A very creditable showing was made by the company.

Private Morgan is having his daily game of solitaire. The old man gets a little the better of him most of the time, but Roy manages to come out on top once in a while.

The men were issued canteen checks again yesterday. This enables them to buy theater tickets. Yesterday was baseball day. There is to be a Twelfth Infantry of Regulars and the Seventh California. Last week the latter was the victor by a score of 5 to 4.

Private Roy Christensen is the champion letter writer of the company. This young chap has no less than eight letters today. And there is not a day goes by but what there is a letter or two for him.

The Fourth Squad has the magazine news of the company in Private Hoskins. He has a magazine in his hand reading whenever there is any spare time.

PATRIOTISM SHOULD DICTATE COURSE OF ELKUS, SAID STONE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—When the senate goes into executive session, all is solemn and serious. For instance, this story leaks out:

"May I ask what sort of a man the nominee is?" asked Senator Penrose of Senator Stone when Abram Elkus was up for confirmation as Turkish ambassador.

"A liberal, intelligent, generous-minded man," said Stone.

"I hope he'll not forget to be liberal in the coming campaign," said Penrose.

"Patriotism should dictate his course," replied Stone.

WHITE PINE IMPORTS BARRED BY WISCONSIN

MADISON, Wis.—Wisconsin has placed a strict quarantine on the importation of all pine nursery stock, according to an announcement made by J. G. Sanders, state entomologist. The white pine blister rust, a danger pest to forests, which has been attacking pine forests in the East, has made its appearance in this state. "If this disease should escape into the native timber it would rapidly spread and in a few years the growing of white pine and the propagation of new plantations would be hopeless," said Sanders, who is conducting the fight against the blister rust. "By the quarantine order importation of white or other five-leaf pines from outside the state into Wisconsin is absolutely prohibited."

SAVANFINDS HOUSE THAT WAS FURNISHED 40,000 YEARS AGO

PHILADELPHIA.—Stone implements and household tools, estimated to be 40,000 years old, forming part of a collection owned by Merempath, son and successor to Rameses the Great, 1300 years before Christ, have been unearthed in the prehistoric monarch's palace at Memphis, ancient capital of Egypt. Discoveries telling of these important discoveries have just reached the University Museum here from Dr. Clarence S. Fisher, leader of the Eckley B. Cox, Jr., expedition to Egypt, it was learned today.

In a full report, Dr. Fisher describes wandering through the spacious halls of the great palace that for centuries lay buried in ancient Memphis, gold ornaments, scarabs, vessels of various kinds and vases were found intact, just as they must have been when the lords of those days evacuated. Many of the relics found, says Dr. Fisher, date back to the Stone Age. Traces of a fire that must have ravished the palace are found on every side, according to the archaeologist.
